27) Clause(H) defines the term butcher the definition is not properly worded since persons who deal in meat need not necessarily be butchers Butchers are persons who are licensed, whether on payment or otherwise, for slaughtering animals in a slaughter house Hence this clause has to be modified suitably

28) Bye-Law No 15

This bye law has to be incorporated as a sub-clause (b) of either Bye-Law No 12 or ~~No 13~~ Bye-Law No 13, since the duties of a veterinary inspector are prescribed in these provisions

29) Bye Laws No 14 and 26

These bye-laws prescribe penalties for contravention of the provisions of the bye laws There is an overlapping of certain offences

In these bye laws and, besides, it appears unnecessary to recite the text of the bye-laws for a contravention of which penalties are imposed

30) A single penal provision on the following lines would appear to cover all these matters:—

"Any breach of the foregoing bye laws shall, on conviction before a magistrate, render the offender liable to a fine which may extend to Rs 50/—"

31) In this view, bye-law No 14 may be omitted and a new provision on the lines stated above may be substituted for the bye-law No 26
